Subject: Desk Statement Needed: Next Week's LULAC Hearing

I think this probably came up on the Comms call yesterday, but just to close the loop.

We are on the hook for developing a desk statement to be used should we receive questions next week after the 9th Circuit hears oral arguments next week in the chlorpyrifos case. I think we can probably update a desk statement we prepared last year prior to the previous oral arguments.

How soon can we have a draft of the desk statement ready to share with the OCSPP-IO?
